Outline what attracts you to the role, showing that you have done your research  I first became aware of The High Roller Group at The London Graduate Recruitment Fair in December 2010 and was impressed with the staff at the stand and the company profile. I am particularly attracted by the emphasis your company puts on 'working with clients to understand their needs and those of their customers or pension scheme members. Furthermore, I am excited about The High Roller Group training scheme because it offers a platform of learning and experience which leads to a wide range of opportunities.  The graduate roles on offer suit the knowledge and skills I have gained on my degree, and my personal attributes. My degree offers a firm foundation of theory and principles related to your two main services, i.e. customer management and improving quality and efficiency. I am also an avid reader of the financial press and aware of current trends and developments within the insurance and pensions industry, as demonstrated in my final year dissertation.  My CV shows a range of roles where I have demonstrated high level communication, interpersonal and interpretive skills so I am confident that I can build and maintain productive relationships with clients and colleagues at your organisation. I would especially like to draw your attention to my six-month internship in Madrid where I successfully performed precise and exacting tasks in another language and culture.  In my CV I have also outlined my aptitude for maths and practical number ability as demonstrated during my technical degree and my experience as a financial assistant.
